Dear Brethren:

I wish to personally thank you for the extreme lengths to which you went in making my week with the Glendale congregation unforgettable. I deeply appreciated your thoughtfulness regarding meal schedules and regarding opportunities to be with you and other members of the congregation at various special times. I do not know of a recent meeting in which I have felt a closer relationship with the entire membership than this one.

I appreciated deeply the every expression of your kindness and concern. It was a thoroughly enjoyable week.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
